To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to inform you that we would like to withdraw our appeal. In June we had the city appraiser come and measure and check our property because there were mistakes on the records.

After talking with Mr. Ed Moore, the land square footage and the square footage of the house both had mistakes and they are off setting each other. This means that an appeal would be a waste of our time and yours.

Please contact us at 303.934.8909 if you have any questions.
